CAREER PLAN: CAREER DEVELOPMENT FRAMEWORK

STUDENT-DIRECTED CAREER AND EDUCATION PLANNING CURRICULUM

An 8th through 12th Grade Model
For Use with CIS
The purpose of secondary career development is two-fold: first, to motivate people to become “engaged” — to take control of their own lives by developing the skills they will need for a lifetime of career self-management, and second, to teach a life planning process that will be used repeatedly over a lifetime. Towards these goals, the Career Plan aspires to instill hope, realism and life planning skills that will guide and inspire your students’ attitudes and actions regarding education, career, and life in an uncertain world.

In developing an implementation plan for planning curriculum, remember these seven Keys for Success:

Define a Framework
Tie all elements of the career development program together in this framework and articulate it to other staff, the students, and their parents.

Build a Developmental Model
You should not be alone in one class offering career development content. Work with other teachers, counselors, and administrators to create a program that offers appropriate activities for awareness, exploration, and planning, K through 12.

Focus on the Process
Career development needs to be valued as a life-long process, not for a single career decision. Teach self-awareness, research, decision-making, problem solving, and employability skills.

Help Students Learn to Plan today, Plan to Learn tomorrow
Personal planning is a life skill. People do not innately know how to plan. Just like math or reading, the skills to plan need to be taught over time.

Help Students Develop Information-seeking Skills
In an information age, finding, evaluating, and using information are important transferable skills.

Use Cooperative Learning Strategies
Build teamwork, communication skills, flexibility, and respect of diversity.

Help Students Prepare for Change
Change provides opportunities if you are prepared for it.

The following pages provide a suggested structure for using these concepts to build a program with CIS’ the Career Plan.
CAREER DEVELOPMENT IN YOUR CLASSES – A MESSAGE TO STUDENTS
(modify message to fit your school’s program)

During your next five years of school, you will be involved in a career and educational planning process called the Career Plan. This student-directed process targets two goals:

1. to help you find meaning in your school courses and activities by relating them to your personal and career goals and to the real world; and
2. to teach you skills and knowledge that you can use throughout your life to manage your education and career decisions.

Each year, you will focus on several elements of career development through required class activities. Because career development is ongoing and very personal, you may find it valuable to spend more time engaged in some of these activities or to independently complete these and update your portfolios.

To understand how these activities fit into the overall process, we use a framework that describes five major steps in career development (see the graphic below). This is a cyclical process that will repeat itself throughout your life. You will repeat this planning process three times while in high school and again as an adult. As you repeat these steps, you will find yourself modifying your career plans over and over again. This is normal and good!
